| Job Title | Junior Cyber Security Engineer |
|---|---|
| Contract Type | Full Time |
| Job Overview | Are you a bright, ambitious Cyber Security Engineer with experience of working on large scale, distributed systems? You could be progressing your career at a global trading firm. |
| Job Specifications & Core Skills | Responsibilities● implementing new security tools and technology initiatives;● installation, configuration, upgrades and management of security technology● BAU activities such as daily maintenance, support, operation and troubleshooting of security systems.Requirements● You have a good understanding of vulnerability assessment, security log, event analysis, and security metrics● You have scripting skills (e.g. PowerShell, Python) and automation experience● You have a good knowledge of Linux OS and basic networking skills● You're familiar with SIEM, ideally with Splunk experience● You're a collaborative team member with excellent communication skills● You're a natural problem solver, organised and logical● You're likely to be degree educated (Computer Science) although this is not essential |